

Me & the GIRLS... The Beverly Hills Women's Club and the talented team from the Marinello Schools of Beauty

Photos: Maxine Picard

THE Beverly Hills Women's Club partnered with Marinello Schools of Beauty for Aviva Day where 40 "at-risk" girls had a day of beauty and inspiration. Aviva is a court appointed, accredited group living facility and high school for girls 12 to 18 who are escaping abusive homes that courts removed them from. Most come to Aviva with only the clothes on their backs. The Marinello Schools of Beauty provided hair and make-up for the teens, and gift bags with back packs, hoodies, skin, hair care products, socks, pajamas, robes, etc. Find out more about Aviva and how you can help: www.avivacenter.org. BHT
